Chapter 1 by Hailey Thomas

Follow Max on his way back home after being dog-napped to a new world.

"Who's a good boy? You are! Yes, you are!" she said in an affectionate tone. My owner was always so kind and gave me treats and a belly rub every time I did something for her. She loved me just as I loved her.

Just then, the phone began to ring. She looked up, startled. She flipped it over and frowned.

"Hello?" she said pressing the phone to her ear.

"Yes. Yes. Umm..." she hesitated, glancing my way.

"Yes, of course! Sure. Yep. Mokay!"

She walked over to me and gave me a short pat before heading to the door.

"I won't be long. I just have to work... overtime..." she looked sad, but she smiled at me and then closed the door behind her.

After a few minutes of loneliness, I looked out through the window. It eyed me curiously before saying - "You have been kidnapped, Max."
